1479 Prime Lambs

The final sale of prime lambs of the year saw a welcome lift in trade, sharpening on the previous weeks strong trade, with a larger proportion of upland lambs forward.

Handy-weight continental lambs once again proved the standout trade, attracting strong buyer competition and selling well beyond expectations. Prices regularly exceeded the 350p/kg mark, with continental lambs in the early 40kg weight range consistently making around £150. Beltex lambs from BC Gregg, Masham led the way, topping the trade at an impressive 388p/kg or £162 at 42kg. Three pens of handy-weight Beltex lambs from R Mudd & Sons, Cubeck, which sold easily over 380p/kg.

Heavy-weight continental lambs also enjoyed a noticeably sharper trade, topping at a tremendous £192 for Texels from Luke Bell Percy, Masham. A run of well-finished heavy-weight Texels from Fleets Farm, Leyburn sold extremely well at £180 (x2), £179.50 and £178, while the consignment from Whyte & Percival, Bainbridge reached £179. Plenty of pens of heavy-weight continental lambs comfortably broke through the £170 barrier. Heavy-weight Mules peaked at £165 from J Dixon & Sons, Downholme, with BFLs selling to a strong £161 from S Bell & Sons, Askrigg.

The Mule trade held firm throughout, averaging 315pence per kilo, with handy-weight Mules regularly exceeding 320p/kg. Horned lambs saw a much-improved trade, with increased demand across the board, particularly for inside-fed handy-weight lambs selling around 300p/kg. Horned lambs peaked at £142 for 47kg Scotch Blackface lambs from P Dinsdale & Son, Carlton, while Swaledale lambs twice reached a top of £136 from DJ Amsden, Hawes and JE Cowperthwaite, Eldroth.
