LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

FRIDAY 11TH SEPTEMBER 2026

SALE OF STORE LAMBS

Forward: 2679

The fortnightly sale of store lambs so another strong number forward of 2679 forward selling to another nice market average of £114.01 with the entry of lambs not as strong as the impressive entry we had forward we had a fortnight ago.

The strongest lambs would be easily as a strong of a trade as the previous trade and probably up a notch with the best pens of store lambs trading in the region of the £140 mark. Leading the way was T Metcalfe, Garsdale with a pen of strong Texel lambs selling to £144.50 followed by other leading consignments of texel lambs to £144 from R Marwood & Son, Newsham £142.50 from HG Lynas & Son £121 from K Calvert Ltd, Bainbridge with pens selling to £140 from D & SM Pratt, Leeming with Beltex lambs also achieving £140 from JM Beresford, Chapel Le Dale with plenty of pens of strong Continental lambs selling in the one hundred and thirties. The Suffolk trade was topped by BD & A Horner, Garsdale at £138 with other pens to £134 from JR Davidson & Son, Horton in Ribblesdale. Longer term lambs would sell to a stand on trade. all texel lambs forward sold to an average £118.61

Once again Hawes boosted a strong trade for the strongest mule lambs. the next size down of mule lambs wouldn't be any dearer than the previous sale held a fortnight ago. Best pens of mule lambs would continue to trade in the one hundred and twenties with a highlight being a pen of 45 strong mule lambs selling to £127.50 from MJ & JD Handley, Sedbergh with other leading prices being £125 for a pen of 43 from BD & A Horner, Garsdale matched by a pen of 22 from DL Mudd, Buckden with plenty more of the strongest best pen's trading in excess of the one hundred and twenty mark. All mule lambs forward averaged £111.84.
