PRIME HOGGS

The weekly sale of prime hogs saw a smaller entry than the previous week, as seen nationally trade slightly less. This being down to the domestic market being filled for the easter trade with imported lamb. Returning faces ring side looking to purchase heavy weight continental hogs helped the trade but this short in supply with an entry today consisting virtually entirely of hill hogs. If you have continental hogs ready to sell prime, please do not hesitate Hawes Auction to discuss as we need them to fill buyers' requirements.

They topped for heavy weight Texel hogs at £169 from JA Alderson, Barras purchased by Dave Morland of Westmorland Tebay Services. This was followed by the consignment of texel hogs from JMW Brown & Son, Low Row selling to £162 and £160 x2 at 50 and 51kg. Handy weighted continental hogs sold to 350p/kg with others selling in the region of 340p/kg and more of these are required.

Cheviot hogs twice sold to £145 from GJ & ME Walker, Dunsop Bridge at 46kg and others to the same price from RW Ewan, Kendal. A shortage of mule hogs which always are met with demand in Hawes sold to £140 at 46kg from CT & JE Willoughby, Redmire. A large proportion of horned hogs in the market with buyers keen to bid on well finished hogs and were extremely cautious of lean hogs. Heavy Swaledale's topped at £142 from J Nelson and Son, Clapham. In specification well fleshed horned hogs still sold towards 300p/kg.
