LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

TUESDAY 20TH JANUARY 2026

Forward: 8 Calves 1819 Sheep comprising 1519 Prime Hogs, 372 Cast Ewes & Rams & Store Lambs.

PRIME HOGGS

There was an increased entry of 1,519 prime hogs forward, which met a stronger trade than expected following reports from Monday markets. An increased number of buyers ringside ensured a positive trade.

As seen nationwide, the trade for heavyweight hogs was slightly easier than the previous week. The trade topped at £168 for heavyweight Leicester hogs from J Burns Agri, Stockton-on-Tees, with other heavyweight Leicester's selling to £162 from J W Porter & Sons, Gunnerside. Heavyweight Texels topped at £164 from M & P Carter, Pickering, with the consignment from Fleets Farm, East Witton, selling to £164, £161, and £158. Plenty more pens of heavyweight continentals sold in the £150s. Handy-weight continental hogs continue to be in demand and keenly sought after by purchasers, with well-fleshed lightweights meeting a strong trade.

The mule trade peaked at £153 for heavyweights from J Burns Agri, Stockton-on-Tees, followed by £150 from J Scarr & Sons, Askrigg. Handy-weight mules sold in excess of 300p/kg, with all mules forward averaging 295p/kg. The horned hogg trade saw an improved trade, with heavyweights topping at £151 from J Rukin & Son, Keld, followed by £148 from J W Porter & Sons, Gunnerside. Well-fleshed light Swaledale hogs regularly sold around 300p/kg, with all Swaledale hogs forward this week averaging 281p/kg.
